JOB'S TEARS.

Seeds That Are Used For Food and Ornament In India.

A seed much used for ornament is that which bears the popular name of Job's tears. The old botanist Gerarde thus describes it: "Every graine resembleth the drop or tear that falleth from the eye." There are, however, now three or four well marked forms of this seed met with in India, which differ from each other in shape, color and degree of hardness and in the presence or absence of grooves or furrows along the length of the hardened involucer.

Dr. Watt of Calcutta thus enumerates them: "There are three types of shape—a long cylindrical or tubular, a normal pear shaped condition and a flattened spheroidal form. The cylindrical grain is always of a white color, smooth, polished, not furrowed, but constricted toward both extremities. This is collected for ornamental purposes only and not as an article for food. The pear shaped form varies in size and color, being pale and bluish white, gray, yellow or brown black. The flattened spheroidal kinds are often yellow or even pink.

"The two principal forms are: One almost round and either white or black. This form is sometimes, though less frequently, used for rosaries and ornamental purposes, but chiefly for food among the hill tribes of India. The second form is tubular, about half an inch long. This is extensively employed for decorative purposes, the dresses worn by the Karen women being often completely covered with embroidered designs of this grain."

FAIRLY TRAPPED.

The Clever Manner In Which Balzac Outwitted His Publisher.

No man knew the value of Balzac's writings better than the famous French novelist himself, a fact which he never failed to impress upon his publishers when terms were being discussed.

On one occasion, as Balzac sat smoking in a friendly fashion with a well known publisher, he remarked casually:

"Now, I want your candid opinion. Honestly, do you believe that I have as much talent as Frederic Soulie?"

"My dear Balzac, how can you ask?" answered his unsuspecting companion. "Why, you have twice his literary capacity."

"Well, as I consider his works immeasurably superior to anything of Eugene Sue's, I suppose I must have more talent than Sue too?"

"Of course you have."

"Twice as much, according to you. Well, I am glad. And now tell me honestly, as we are discussing literary merits, surely I am as good as Dumas?"

"Better—better."

"Thank goodness, our opinions coincide. And now, since my novels are worth twice as much as those of Frederic Soulie and Eugene Sue, I demand in common justice to be paid double what you pay them for theirs."

There was nothing to be said, says one of Balzac's biographers. The unfortunate publishor had been trapped and owned it.

FOR BOTH

One disease of thinness in children is scrofula; in adults, consumption. Both have poor blood; both need more fat. These diseases thrive on leanness. Fat is the best means of overcoming them; cod liver oil makes the best and healthiest fat and is the easiest and most effective form of cod liver oil. Here's a natural order of things that shows why Scott's Emulsion is of so much value in all cases of scrofula and consumption. More fat, more weight, more nourishment, that's why.

Saturday, May 13, 1905.

D. E. O'KEEFE.....EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

The growth of San Francisco, which is significant of the general expansion in progress throughout the Pacific Coast, is shown by the statement that during April the sales of real estate in that city amounted to $4,850,618, and the value represented in contracts for buildings was $2,226,555, making a total of $7,077,175 represented in transactions affecting real estate interests.

Nothing more bizarre can be found in the field of French fiction than the revelations the Collins case affords. A social phase is revealed that Emile Zola would have seized with avidity and treated with characteristic power. The incident is depressing from a moral point of view, but it has its lessons and its warnings.

It is announced that a stenographer is going to tell the beef trust's secrets when the case comes up in court. If all the stenographers in this country should tell all the business secrets that they knew, what a stir-up there would be!

Elijah Dowie is evangelizing in old Mexico. Maybe it was through his influence that President Diaz brought the country to a gold basis.

No adequate description of a trust has ever been given. Calling it "a community of interests" tends to confuse rather than enlighten the public mind.

It is a pleasure to hear that the crop prospects for 1905, as far as they are in sight, are excellent. Prosperity has an able ally in the American farmer.

BULGING GUN BARRELS.

The Ruin That Is Wrought by Careless Handling.

I have sold guns for ten years, and in that time four of them have had their barrels bulged, one by snow, one by dirt, one by sand and one by something else getting into it. One man crawling through a fence got a little snow in the muzzle. He could not remove it with his finger, so concluded to wait and shoot it out, which he did, but he found a bulge like a pullet's egg on the end of the barrel. Another got some earth in the muzzle and shot it out, and he, too, found the same kind of a bulge on the end of his gun. Another fired his gun at ducks, which knocked him over on his back and fairly got away from him. When he picked up the gun he found a narrow raised band around the barrel fourteen inches from the muzzle. In this case a wad had probably lodged there. This customer thinks the manufacturers ought to give him a new set of barrels. I tell him if the barrels had not been good ones it would have been a burst instead of a bulge, which might have maimed or killed him. Another man lying on a point brought down a duck with a broken wing which scurried for the water. The man ran and struck the duck with the muzzle of the gun and in so doing got sand in it. He blew most of it out and shot out the rest of it. Well, after that shot he found a little blister two inches from the muzzle about the size of a man's little finger.

Moral.—Do not shoot obstructions of any kind out of your gun if you value your life or gun.—Uncle Dan in Amateur Sportsman.

Comparative Depth of Wells.

The deepest wells in Europe are at Passy, France, depth 2,000 feet; at La Chapelle, Paris, depth 2,950 feet; at Grenelle, Paris, depth 1,798 feet; at Neusalwerk, near Minden, depth 2,288 feet; at Kissengen, Bavaria, depth 1,787 feet; at Sperenberg, near Berlin, depth 4,190 feet, which is said to be the deepest in the world, and at Pesth, Hungary, depth 3,182 feet. In the United States there are wells located at St. Louis, depth 3,843 feet; at Louisville, depth 2,086 feet; at Columbus, O., depth 2,775½ feet, and at Charleston, S. C., depth 1,250 feet.

Hazing In Scotland.

They haze in Scotland, too, only there they call it "ragging." A recent exploit of certain St. Andrews university students was to shave the head of an unpopular man and cover it with red paint. Then their vengeance fell upon one who had refused to join in their frolics. With great solemnity he was tried and found guilty of publishing libels against their supreme highnesses the king of Siam and the dey of Algiers and for a punishment was forcibly carried to the Swilcan burn, a stream running through the famous links, and there ducked.

SEOUL'S QUEEREST.

The One Eyed Woman In the Grass Green Cloak.

"From my point of view the principal and almost the only charm that Seoul has for the newcomer lies in the novelty of the costumes that it presents," says George Kennan, writing about the capital of Korea in the Outlook. "It is not interesting architecturally, and it is detestably and disgustingly unclean, but its street scenes, particularly in the unmodified parts of the old town, are unlike anything to be found elsewhere in the east. I have already referred to the strange impression made by a population clothed wholly in white, to the grotesquely absurd headgear of the mourners, to the partly naked women and to the effeminate, girlish appearance of the boys, but in Seoul there is another figure which is quite as striking as any of these, and that is the one eyed woman in the grass green cloak.

"Just as you are beginning to get accustomed to the woman in white, with her handbreadth shoulder jacket, her bunchy skirts and her seminude appearance, you run up against the woman in green, whose costume is bizarre enough to give you a fresh shock of surprise. Her outer garment, which is all that can be seen, may be roughly described as a green silk waterproof, with white neck yoke and sleeve cuffs, held together in front by means of four long ribbon tie strings. Two of these strings are bright scarlet and two dull, reddish purple, and they hang down in front nearly to the ground.

"A grass green waterproof trimmed with scarlet and purple ribbons would be striking enough even if it were worn in the American way, but it is not so worn. On the contrary, the neck yoke, or collar, is thrown over the head, and the cloak is drawn around the face so as to conceal all except one eye, while the sleeves, which are mere shams, without openings for the arms, hang down from the wearer's ears. Anything more extraordinary than this grass green burnoose, with its scarlet and purple strings and its dangling white margined ear sleeves, would be hard to imagine, and when in a crowded street or market place you see a dozen of these polychromatic apparitions and an equal number of basket headed mourners gliding noiselessly to and fro in a throng of white robed ghosts who are fanning themselves or smoking long stemmed pipes you feel like rubbing your eyes to make sure that you are awake.

"These women in green are the wives of men who belong to what may be called the Korean middle class, and their costume is traditionally said to have had its origin in a ruse de guerre practiced by the women of Seoul when the city was attacked by the enemy at night in the absence of all its male defenders. The wives of the latter, it is said, caught up weapons, threw their husbands' jackets over their heads and manned (or womaned) the walls, and there they fought so bravely, or made such a brave show of fighting, that the attacking force, taking them for men, abandoned the assault and withdrew.

"In commemoration of this achievement the women and their descendants were permitted to wear as badges of honor the jackets that they had thrown over their heads when they rushed to the walls. This explanation of the green cloak sounds like a story invented to fit an observed fact, but the persistence of color in this particular garment while all other clothing remains white and the transformation of useful sleeves into conventional shams which now hang down from the ears seem to indicate a survival of some ancient and significant custom."

Sure.

Mrs. Bunn—So your servant ran off. Don't you think she'll regret it? Mrs. Hunn—Yes, because my husband ran with her.—Manchester (N. H.) Mirror and American.

Only as we love can we work beautifully, harmoniously, courageously. Courage comes with love; it is love alone that makes tasks easy and fingers fly fast.—W. J. Colville.

More Than Beauty Needed.

"You are beautiful enough to be wooed by an emperor."

"Am I beautiful enough to be wooed by a duke?'

"Yes, indeed; but not rich enough."—Houston Post.

OUR MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT

D. R. Stafford Expatiates on Our Exceptional Advantages.

He Predicts That Redwood City Will Continue to Expand and Attract Attention.

At the annual banquet given by the Board of Trade of this city recently Town Clerk D. R. Stafford delivered the following eloquent and timely address:

Mr. Toastmaster and gentlemen:—The topic allotted myself is one about which apparently nothing new can be said—the subject of the government of a municipality. On the face of the statement this is doubtlessly true, but on investigation and study this erroneous idea will soon be dispelled and the enormity of the task will soon be revealed to any one who desires to pursue the idea. The matter of having a community or city governed by a board of Trustees is not a new venture, hence the history of the past is sufficient ro refer to when we desire a summary of the progress of our city as compared with other places. For myself, I am willing to say that our progress has been splendid when we consider the worry, snags and setbacks we have run on, such as all municipalities meet with in their journey through time. We are now in possession of our street lighting system, but have a contract with the United Gas and Electric Company, a corporation, for the "juice" to light our lamps with. We are in possession of our water system, but have a contract with the Redwood City Water Company, a corporation, for the water used in our city. Both of these useful and necessary articles were favorably operated and supplied by the town itself; but old machinery, poor pumps, a worn-out plant, made it imperative on the trustees to install, at great cost, an entire new outfit or go outside for these necessities. Result—we went outside, but still retain the old plant as an emergency. We are at present installing a complete new system of water pipes and are about to commence the construction of macadam and asphaltum streets, which when completed will represent an expenditure of $100,000. Our city to-day, it can well and truly be said, has quietly and emphatically taken her place amongst California's most enterprising burgs.

A most noteworthy method of performing deeds has heretofore been the accepted manner of our securing good results; that is, to map out the work, place it intelligently before the people, they accept the burden, and a result is ascertained credible to the effort. We say little but do much; that is a key to any successful task.

We have within our limits some of the best public school buildings to be found in this State. We will soon have a magnificent court house to gaze upon with pride, and a neat library building which when finished will attest to the dignity of the Trustees in their selection. But, sorry to say, gentlemen, it is true we have a most deplorable and unsightly city hall; and when we sum up the good school buildings, the court house, the library, nearly all of which represent the good will of people living outside our limits, and take ourselves into a confidential train of reasoning and think of our city hall, we ought to be ashamed of ourselves. It is the truth. Not one of us here to-night like to hear these words; I dislike to say them, but they are true—we are ashamed of ourselves. As an honest confession it is good for the soul; let us take it pleasantly and see if we cannot extricate ourselves later on.

So much for the municipality generally. Now let us get a little closer to the subject of our municipality government. The state law provides that cities of the sixth class, such as Redwood, shall be governed by five citizens elected by the people and called Trustees. The law defines their powers and ordinances are made by them to conform to the necessities of the community. The past relations between the Board of Trade and the Board of Trustees have been very agreeable and doubtlessly will continue to be as long as our petitions are reasonable and just. I believe that I am warranted in saying that the opinions and judgment of members of this board are generally sought and kindly received where matters of action concerning the city generally are at stake. Of course, at times we are liable to become impatient at the apparently inanimate creature called a trustee, because he does not at once, on demand, fix our sewer or give us a light, or make Jones put a sidewalk in front of his lot, etc.; but place yourself, if you can, in the trustees' position. As an officer with no salary allowed him by law, the law allows us to give him everything except salary—and he gets it. I can truthfully say that in the present board of trustees, work has been performed and time given up to the betterment of the city by members of the board that, if the city had to pay for such services, would amount to $1500 or $2000; yet these gentlemen patiently proceed with this work, having it interrupted on occasions by demands that perhaps while made in good faith, thwart the plan which they have spent hours and hours to arrange in proper form; and this to any person is irritating, no matter if the request is reasonable and just.

We laugh at the story of Mrs. McTalker the lady who was shot by a burglar. Her friend Mrs. Tellit told Mrs. Hearit that Mrs. McTalker was frightfully injured—that she was shot in the most vital spot. The papers stated she was shot in the jaw. Not so with the trustee. You judge him by his work, not by his talk.

Redwood City is destined some day to be a very happy, prosperous city. We owe it to ourselves and to our children to do everything well that we undertake. Let us build grandly for the future. California is possessed of the climate that makes Italy second on earth. She is in possession of the key to the Pacific ocean. She is in possession of the greatest wonders the world gives to man—Yosemite, the Big Trees. She is a beacon light upon which the eyes of the entire world are focused. We of Redwood, nestled cosily under her greatest city, if we realize it, are the most fortunate people who tread the sod of earth, and we ought to make our greatest effort to keep our municipality in the estimation of the world that her position geographically gives her.

RAPID RAILROAD WORK.

The Cut-off Will Be Completed in Two Years at a Big Expense.

One of the busiest spots on the coast at the present time is the route of the proposed bay shore cut-off which the Southern Pacific is building in the northern end of this county. For a distance of ten miles gangs of men and construction machinery of every description are encountered. The work of boring the five tunnels is about to commence and in each instance operations will be conducted simultaneously from both ends. The grading is being prosecuted diligently, five mamoth steam shovels being in operation. When it is remembered that each of these huge pieces of machinery performs the work of 200 men some idea of the magnitude of the operations may be gained. The total cost of the building of the cut-off will it is thought come close to the ten million mark. Every part is performed without regard to expense, as will appear from the fact that a crossing lately constructed near South San Francisco to carry the tracks over the Spring Valley water mains represented an expenditure in itself of about $60,000. It is thought the line cannot be opened in less than two years.

A LECTURE ON CALIFORNIA.

J. W. Erwin Will Speak Thursday Night in the Alhambra.

Through the efforts of a number of our public-spirited citizens and the courtesy of the California Promotion Committee the citizens of Redwood will on next Thursday evening enjoy a rare treat.

J. W. Erwin, the official lecturer of the California Promotion Committee at the World's Fair will be here to deliver his illustrated lecture on California. This lecture he has delivered throughout the East and has been the means of bringing many settlers to this State.

Mr. Erwin is traveling through the State securing fresh views preparatory to another tour of the States and has been persuaded to deliver his lecture at this point that the people of this county might get an idea of the kind of work being done by the Promotion Committee.

The work of the committee will be explained and the audience addressed by able speakers on promotion work.

All who desire to see and hear of the beauty, wonders and resources of this great State should be present.

The lecture will be entirely free and will be held at the Alhambra next Thursday, the 18th, at 8 p. m.

Remember no charge is made, and all are invited. You come and ask your neighbor to come.

THE ALUMNI DANCE.

It Will Be a Pretentious Affair and Will Be Strictly Invitational.

The Sequoia Union High School Alumni Association held a meeting in the high school building Monday afternoon. The question of giving some sort of initiative reception to the graduating class was discussed, and it was decided to give a dance in the Alhambra upon the evening of June 3d. A committee consisting of Miss G. Beeger, Miss Fannie Crowe, Miss C. Murray and Gerald C. Halsey, chairman, was selected to arrange the details.

It is planned to make the function one of the greatest social successes ever held in Redwood. The music will be furnished by leading San Jose bands, and refreshments will be served to all. The members of the association, and others not wishing to dance, will be given an opportunity to enjoy themselves during the evening, and every effort will be made to make the graduating class acquainted with the old members of the alumni. The affair will be strictly invitational to outsiders, and a general invitation is issued to all members of the association.

Financial Strength.

Conservative Management.

And Stock-holders of Character and Reliability.

A bank should have all these qualities to be a safe, permanent and successful institution.

The comparative statement of deposits of the San Mateo County Savings Bank which opened for business on Feb. 1st, 1904, must be interesting to the people, as it is, in a way, an index to the growth of the community.

Deposits April 1, 1904	$ 45,436 76
Deposits August 1, 1904	76,368 28
Deposits November 1, 1904	100,679 70
Deposits January 1, 1905	110,813 16
Deposits March 1, 1905	117,271 02
Deposits May 1, 1905	127,645 11

We are growing steadily, and as we grow we increase our usefulness in the county.

The First National Bank, under the same management, has also made a satisfactory growth in deposits.

These banks invite the closest investigation. Secure in the knowledge that in resources, reliability, careful and courteous management they will satisfy the most exacting demands, we respectfully invite your accounts.

Deceased was a native of Austria and enjoyed good health until eight weeks ago when she fractured her thigh bone. All hope of her recovery was abandoned owing to her advanced age. She received the tenderest care from her devoted daughter but despite this she finally succumbed. Mrs. Klinger was a kindly old lady devoted to hes family and home. She is survived by four children. Her mortal remains were laid away by sorrowing friends in the Home of Peace cemetery Sunday. Services were held at the grave by Rev. Levy of San Francisco.

A large attendance is to be present from the private schools of Palo Alto and Stanford's.

The Palo Alto Co-operate Realty Co. has purchased the Goodwin property in the Casserly tract and will soon subdivide it into acre parcels. The citizens of that favored locality are now making arrangements to get a bridge over the creek at the junction of the Creek road an Menalto avenue. This will give immediate communication with the town of Palo Alto. The matter has been taken up by the business men of the College town and the county will no doubt stand one-half the expense of construction of the proposed bridge. The taxpayers of Ravenswood will expect this county to bear its share of the improvement. Up to this time very little has been expended in that vicinity, and naturally the landowners look to the county to construct one-half the proposed bridge. This improvement will enhance the property valuation of the entire locality, and when the Goodwin tract is opened for homeseekers there will be quite a stir in real estate there. The tract will be put on the market at once and will be known as the "Menalto Tract," a combination of the words "Menlo" and "Alto." With a school, beautiful surroundings and across the creek from Palo Alto, Ravenswood will shortly become a favored spot for homeseekers.

The first spring exhibition of the Menlo Park Horticultural Society, held Saturday, May 6th, in Duff & Doyle Hall, proved to be a gratifying success, much more so in fact than its most ardent supporters anticipated. The day was a most auspicious one and the hall was thronged during the afternoon with the aristocracy of Menlo Park and vicinity. The show was confined entirely to the exhibition of cut flowers, all potted and decorative plants being eliminated owing to the limited space. The exhibit of flowering shrubs from W. H. Crocker of Burlingame and Timothy Hopkins of Menlo Park was large and complete, many new and rare things being shown. Mr. Crocker was awarded first premium for his exhibit, and Timothy Hopkins second. The exhibit of annuals and herbaceous plants from Mr. Geo. A. Pope of Burlingame was another fine feature and carried off first prize in both classes. All of the newer varieties of sweet peas were shown by Mr. S. E. Slade, Mr. C. W. Smith and Mr. Timothy Hopkins. Many novelties never before exhibited were staged by these gentlemen. First award for ten varieties went to C. W. Smith, and second to S. E. Slade. Timothy Hopkins secured first for vases of five varieties. Mr. D. V. Tuttle showed his new pink seedling. It is a splendid novelty and was highly commended by the judges. The entire center of the hall was devoted to cut roses exclusively, and four very complete collections were shown. This was one of the most interesting exhibits of the show and was continuously surrounded by admiring crowds. The following were the exhibitors: J. Henry Meyer, Timothy Hopkins, C. W. Smith and S. E. Slade. The gardeners of the abovenamed gentlemen deserve much praise for the splendid quality of the blooms shown. J. Henry Meyer received the first prize for the largest and best collection. C. W. Smith received first prize for hybrid teas and also for hybrid perpetuals. Geo. Nunn, head gardener to S. E. Slade, received first for his splendid exhibit of pansies. Second prize went to Mr. Geo. A. Pope of Burlingame. A very pleasing exhibit was the display of rhododendrons from Mr. J. B. Coryell, Esq., Andrew McDonald gardener. This was something new to the flower-loving public and the beautiful collection carried off first prize. Mr. Coryell received all awards for roses grown under glass, as follows: First for Brides, first for Bridesmaids, and first for Beauties. In the annex was a very beautiful table decoration executed by Andrew McDonald, gardener for Mr. Coryell. It was composed of the rarest orchids and ferns. It was a grand affair and was greatly commented upon. In the hall proper were the exhibits of vases of roses. James L. Flood, H. McLain gardener, carried off the majority of the prizes. His roses were a revelation for size and color. He was awarded first for the best vase of white, first for the best vase of pink, first for the best vase of red. M. W. Carter, gardener to Timothy Hopkins, received first for the best collection of Spanish iris and best collection of pelargoniums. Geo. A. Pope received first for collection of peonies. F. Mills of Palo Alto received first for lilies and carnations. They were a fine lot and splendidly grown. The entire management of placing exhibits, arranging displays, etc., was under the supervision of the president of the society, Mr. Sidney Clack. As in all the former exhibitions of the society, Mr. Clack showed that great skill and knowledge that makes him so eminently fitted for the work. The proceeds of the show will be devoted to premiums to be offered at the annual fall chrysanthemum show, which it is intended to make the most elaborate ever given on the Pacific coast. The entertainment in the evening was the best ever seen in Menlo Park. The Stanford Glee Club and the Stanford Mandolin Club gave a splendid performance and were applauded to the echo. Much credit is due to Robert Rathbone and James T. Lynch for arranging the excellent programme.

Ho! for the picnic! For many weeks the people of the peninsula have been looking forward to the big outing in the Santa Cruz Mountains, and this morning will see a large gathering headed for that well-known resort. It is said Sam Brown will up at 5 o'clock to grease the pig that is to create such fun on the grounds. He will take the first train and occupy one of the front coaches all by his lonely and the pig. David Kirby will be on hand early with the Gaelic League to capture the second train, so that they can talk Irish all the way to the grounds. The five trains will be under the supervision of F. W. Johnson who will have charge of the first train, Thomas Reynolds the second, John Morey the third, J. B. Kelly the fourth, and F. P. Roach the fifth. All indications point to a large gathering. All business houses are to suspend business for the day. Dull care is to be thrown to the wind. Redwood City is to turn out in large numbers. It will be an ideal day for a picnic. All aboard.

Petition for a Bridge.

E. Donohoe, C. O'Connor, Professor Green of Stanford, and others, who own land south of St. Patrick's Seminary have petitioned the Supervisors of San Mateo and Santa Clara counties to have a bridge built across San Francisquito Creek at a point in line with the extension of University avenue in Palo Alto. The San Mateo Supervisors have agreed to appropriate one-half the cost. The petition will be before the Santa Clara Supervisors on the 15th. It is proposed to open a boulevard from the bridge to Cooley's Landing, giving a direct driveway from Palo Alto to the bay and making accessible some fine residence property, which is thickly set with live oaks.

Events of the Week as Recorded by Corps of Special Correspondents.

A Bank Will Be Organized at Halfmoon Bay—The Haying Season Is On.

WOODSIDE, May 12—Woodside promises to be well represented at the picnic to-morrow. It is an outing no one would miss, and those who have a possible chance will go.

J. A. Folger has purchased four acres of land at the foot of the mountain and next to Neumann's from Chas. Dearborn. Mr. Folger contemplates vast improvements on his place and deemed the purchase necessary.

Miss Meta Kugeler of San Francisco and her friend Miss Stanton of Menlo visited friends in this place the first of the week.

The rain the first of the week was the heaviest in years. About an inch and a half fell, yet little or no damage was done.

Haying has commenced here, but the continued threatening weather has made most farmers backward about cutting.

The dance last Saturday evening was well attended considering the inclemency of the weather.

Mrs. McNulty of San Francisco was the guest of Mrs. C. K. McIntosh during the week.

Miss Flora Ford of Oakland is the guest of her friend Miss Anna Meyer.

HALFMOON BAY RIPPLES.

HALFMOON BAY, May 12.—At a meeting of the citizens of the coast side last Sunday it was decided to organize a bank at Halfmoon Bay. The directors chosen were as follows: J. C. Williamson, Horace Nelson, J. M. Francis, C. W. Borden and H. Levy. James J. Fagan was chosen temporary president, and A. P. Gianini temporary secretary. The capital stock of the new institution is to be $50,000, one-half of which has already been subscribed and paid in. At the meeting the sum of $17,600 was subscribed within a few minutes. A committee was appointed to select a site upon which it is intended to erect a suitable bank building. Another meeting will be held on the 20th, at which permanent officers will be elected.

A party of surveyors of the electric road are stopping at the Occidental hotel. One party is surveying in the vicinity of the new wharf, while the other party is only a few miles from town. It will only be a short time until the survey is complete; then for the laying of rails and making the roadbed.

REFUSE TO BE VACCINATED.

In Some Districts Few of the Children Are Inoculated.

Henry Stenberger, J. W. Glennan and Richard Svihus are representatives of Bay View lodge of Odd Fellows at the Grand Lodge in San Francisco this week.

Partial school census returns have been received by the County Superintendent. The two largest districts of the county—San Mateo and Redwood City—report as follows:

San Mateo—A total of 873 children, of which 516 are boys and 357 girls. There are 465 families in the district and 659 children are reported as not being vaccinated.

Redwood City—Total number o children, 529: boys 269, girls 260. There are 295 families and 254 children are not vaccinated.

Reports from other districts about the county show a wholesale disregard for the vaccination regulation, only a small proportion of the children having complied with the law.

The Writ Dismissed.

Tuesday Judge Buck rendered a verbal decision in which the writ of prohibition recently sued out against the city council to prevent the issuance of any more liquor licenses was ordered dismissed. The court held that through such a writ it was impossible to review the acts of the council and that other action would have to be taken. Attorney Thorpe says that those opposed to increased liquor traffic will probably be heard from next Monday night.

Dismissed the Appeal.

County Clerk Schaberg has received the remittitur from the Supreme Court in the case of Elizabeth D. Johnson against the Phenix Insurance Company. That tribunal dismissed the appeal from the judgment of the lower court on the grounds that other parties to the suit were not served with a notice of the appeal. The appeal as to a new trial is still pending. The plaintiff received a judgment in the lower court against the company for $1000 for a policy on a building that was burned at Belmont a few years ago.

FROM HEAD TO FOOT

you feel the good that's done by Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cleanses, regulates and invigorates Stomach, Liver and Bowels and so purifies the blood. And through the blood, it cleanses, repairs, and invigorates the whole system.

In recovering from "grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other exhausting diseases, nothing can equal it as an appetizing, restorative tonic to build up needed flesh and strength. It rouses every organ into natural action, promotes all the bodily functions, and restores health and vigor.

For every disease that comes from foul or Weak Stomach, a torpid Liver or impure Blood, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, and the most stubborn Skin, Scalp, or Scrofulous affections, the "Discovery" is a sovereign remedy. Don't be hypnotized, wheedled, or over persuaded into accepting a substitute only that some selfish medicine seller may make a greater profit on the inferior article. The "Discovery" has a great record of nearly forty years with thousands of cures behind it.

Dear Sir—Several years ago my blood became impoverished and I became run down in health. I had no appetite, could not sleep, and was practically unfitted for work. Suffered from innumerable boils and was in bad shape. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery relieved me of my wretched condition. The medicine built up my system and restored me to a normal condition of health. I can speak most highly also, of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as it has been used in my family for years in cases of female trouble.

FIRST MAP OF THE SKY.

It Was Made 1,420 Years Before the Christian Era.

At a very early period in the history of astronomy it was felt that the stars should be divided into distinct groups or constellations. This important task has engaged the attention of astronomers from remote times and has only been brought to its present perfection by a long series of intellectual efforts.

According to Clement of Alexandria, it was Chiron, believed to be the maker of the first celestial globe, who, 1,420 years before the Christian era, divided the starry heavens into constellations and so mapped out the sky. Newton upheld this opinion, which is further corroborated in the book of Job, where allusion is made to Orion, the Pleiades, and the Hyades, a proof that at a very early period there had been a grouping of the stars.

Hesiod in his "Works and Days," written 2,700 years ago, also refers to several of the constellations as though their names were familiar to his readers.

Geo. C. Ross, attorney for plaintiff, Redwood City, California.

The People of the State of California send greeting to: R. Anastasia Sweeny Pescia, Frank Mahon, The German Savings and Loan Society, a corporation, B. A. Becker and George Tourny, defendants.

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff, in the Superior Court of the County of San Mateo, State of California, and to answer the complaint filed therein within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons, if served within said county; if served elsewhere within thirty days.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to so appear and answer, the plaintiff will take judgment for any money or damages demanded in the complaint as arising upon contract, or will apply to the court for any other relief demanded in the complaint.

That the said action is brought to obtain a decree for the specific performance, by the defendant R. Anastasia Sweeny Pescia, of a contract and requiring her to execute and deliver to plaintiff all of the lands and premises situated near Redwood City, in the County of San Mateo, State of California, and bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

All of the marsh land lying East of the Redwood City Creek and South of the West Point Creek, excepting those portions of sections sixteen, seventeen, twenty and twenty-one Township five South, Range three West, which join the lands of W. Holder, and lying South of the Steinberger creek, and which said lands constitute fractional sections eight, nine, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, twenty-one and twenty-two in Township five South, Range three West, Mount Diablo Meridian, and containing 1783.96 acres; and adjudging that the remaining defendants have no interest in said premises, and for general relief and costs of suit.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Superior Court of the County of San Mateo, State of California, this 11th day of March, A. D. 1905.

[SEAL.] H. W. SCHABERG, Clerk.
